The Harold D. Paxton
International Professorship
A Bridge to Worldwide Neurosurgical Education

The Harold D. Paxton International Professorship in Neurological Surgery Education was created by the OHSU Department of Neurological Surgery to honor Dr. Paxton's dedication to international neurosurgical education.

In keeping with Dr. Paxton's philosophy and approach to neurological surgery education, this endowed professorship supports the implementation, development and advancement of the academic training program of the OHSU Department of Neurological Surgery. On a yearly basis, an academic neurologist with an international reputation for education, innovation and use of state-of-the-art approaches to neurosurgical teaching techniques, will be invited to fill this unique professorship.
